AREAS OF PRACTICE

Henrik Høines is affiliated with Kluge's Manufacturing, Retailing & Finance Department, where he works in particular with contract law, IPR and company law. Within IPR, Høines provides assistance in both patent and copyright disputes and matters under the Marketing Act

The work within patent rights concerns in particular securing of evidence, correspondence, negotiations and dispute resolution in cases of patent infringement. Furthermore, he assists in trademark disputes. Høines also assists in cases concerning the Intellectual Property Act and the Marketing Act, including copyright infringement, product licensing and competition clauses.

Høines also assists clients with drafting and negotiations of contracts related to technology development and R&D projects, including cooperation and partner agreements related to development and commercialization of technology. He also has broad experience with various contracts related to development and licensing of technology and software. Høines frequently assists clients in connection with technology transactions.

Høines wrote his master's thesis on financial assistance for purchase of own shares in the Norwegian Companies Act § 8-10. During his semester abroad, Henrik specialized in mediation, corporate governance and international contracts.
