AREAS OF PRACTICE

Energy law (Oil & Gas, Renewable Energy, Offshore Supplier Industry), Contract Law, M&A, Dispute Resolution.

Kenneth Høgevold mainly works within the energy sector, with a particular focus on contract law and M&A.

Høgevold joined Kluge in January 2013, and has worked on several major Oil & Gas licence transactions. In 2016, he also had a key role in a major wind power transaction.

He has also provided legal advice to a number of different companies within the sector, including oil companies, district heating companies, grid companies and offshore suppliers. His focus has especially been on contract law advice, in particular within gas sales and transportation agreements, and other types of downstream agreements.
