

CV

Kristine Møse
Senior Associate
E-mail: kristine.mose@kluge.no

EDUCATION

2008 - 2014 Master of Law, University of Oslo

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2018 - t.d. Senior Associate, Kluge Advokatfirma
2016 - 2018 Deputy judge, Follo District Court
2016 Senior Associate, Kluge Advokatfirma
2015 - 2016 Secretary, law reform committee established by the Ministry of Justice
2014 - Associate, Kluge Advokatfirma
2013 - 2014 Research assistant, Centre for European law at the University of Oslo
2013 - 2014 Editor, EuroRett
2013 Trainee, the Parliamentary Ombudsman

AREAS OF PRACTICE

In Kluge's department of Manufacturing, Retailing & Finance, Kristine Møse works with dispute resolution and litigation within a variety of legal fields. Møse has also served as secretary to a law reform committee established by the Ministry of Justice, and she has served as a deputy judge at Follo District Court.

Møse completed her master's degree at the University of Oslo in June 2014. As a research assistant at the Centre for European Law, she wrote a thesis on EEA and immigration law. During internships at the Parliamentary Ombudsman, she worked within the areas concerning access to public documents and appointments in public sector.

PUBLICATIONS

Secretary for the Official Norwegian Report NOU 2016: 10 "Evaluering av garantireglene i bustadoppføringslova"

Several publications in the journal EuroRett.

The Nordic Institute of Maritime Law's journal Marlus: "The power to restrict the freedom of movement of EEA citizens on grounds of public policy, public security or public health"

LANGUAGE

English (fluent)